IN MEMORIAM

With the passing of Rabbi Nachum I. Sachs, z"zl, the Jewish community has suffered a great loss.
Rabbi Sachs served as a practicing rabbi for many years,
and for over four decades
was a member of the faculty of the Hebrew Theological College.
Since the inception of the Academy in 1942,
Rabbi Sachs taught the senior Talmud shiur,
and a year ago assumed the added duties of "bochen", or examiner, of the Talmud classes.

For us, as Academy students,
the death of Rav Sachs was a personal loss.
For those of us who were fortunate to have had him as a teacher,
he was our "rebbe".
His humility and kindness, his sense of humor,
and, most important, his dedication to the study of Torah impressed us from our first encounter.
Because of his profound influence on students,
the spirit of Rav Sachs lives on with us.

To the memory of Morenu Harav Sachs, z"zl,
do we reverently dedicate this volume,
the 1966 "Academy Memoirs".

FOREWORD

"And they heard
the voice of G-d
And G-d called unto man
And said unto him:
Where art thou?"

Man, having eaten of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, is called upon by the voice of G-d
to bear the responsibilities of his knowledge.
G-d's question, "Where art thou?",
is not, as it seems at first, rhetorical,
for G-d surely knows where man is.
Rather, it is directed to man, who alone is expected to respond.
As commentators explain,
"Where art thou?" introduces a dialogue between man and G-d, a dialogue in which man must answer, "Where am I".
Because G-d chooses to address man in man's language,
and with a man's voice,
each individual must answer not only the divine call but also that of mankind, which His voice signifies.

In the Academy we, too, have eaten of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil,
and have gained the potential and responsibility for decision.
Unlike Adam, though, we cannot even attempt to hide from the challenge of the voice of G-d: "Where art thou?".
Our answer is expressed in how we think and how we act,
in how we work and how we play.
We have begun to indicate this answer during the past four years.
Our future shall be directed toward seeking an even fuller answer to this question,
"Where art thou?"

The G-d of glory thunders . . .
The voice of G-d is majestic.
The voice of G-d breaks the cedars . . .

It is my privilege as Chairman of the Board of Governors to extend greetings and congratulations to the 1966 Graduating Class of the Chicago Jewish Academy and Yeshiva High School. We are extremely proud of you and are confident that you will furnish the leadership that the Jewish Community of tomorrow will so sorely need.

All of us recognize that prayer is an essential ingredient of our faith. Prayer is, however, not the ultimate in reaching the Almighty, according to our Halacha. It is only a means through which one acquires the religious fervor and zeal which one must attain before he can be said to have unqualifiedly committed himself to his Maker. "Prayer," says Rabbi J. B. Soloveitchik, "must always be related to a prayerful life which is consecrated to the realization of the divine imperative and, as such, it is not a separate entity, but the sublime prologue to Halachic action."

In like manner, the education which each of you received at the Academy or Yeshiva is one of the most priceless treasures which you will ever acquire. But if your years at the Academy were spent merely in the acquisition of knowledge you could have undoubtedly duplicated such education at a few other schools, and, incidentally, at considerably less cost to your parents. If, in other words, your education has left you cold to Jewish ideals and tradition and failed to inculate in you a love for Torah learning, a genuine respect for Torah scholarship and "Talmidai Chachamim" and an elevated degree of "Yirat Shamayim" then your education has not served its purpose. For, just as prayer is not the "end" in our traditional view of faith but merely the "means to attain an end," so Jewish education should not be the "end" but the "means to attain an end," that is, making one a better Jew, a more ethical, more devout, and more G-d—fearing person. To the extent that you have thus enriched and improved yourselves, to the extent have we of the leadership of the Academy succeeded in futhering our aims and goals.

There is certainly a great dearth of Rabbis, Hebrew teachers, religious social workers, writers, and scholars; this void could be filled in good measure were this to be the case. Failing that, however, we would hopefully look forward to your continuing study, at least on a private basis.

In conclusion, then, let me say that it is our fond hope and prayer that you of the 1966 Graduating Class will commence the process of reversing the trend toward a cessation of Jewish education. In spite of all obstacles and handicaps, you will gradually erode the cynicism which prevails in the Jewish Community toward Torah study and learning "Lishma" (for its own sake). May you go from strength to strength, and may you be a source of blessing to our people everywhere.

JOSEPH R. FRIEDMAN

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

RABBI SHLOMO RAPOPORT
Semicha-Hebrew Theological College
B.S.—Illinois Institute of Technology
M.S.—Northwestern University
D.H.L.—Hebrew Theological College

"But, Rabbi, it's the principal of the thing."

In the name of the administration and faculty of the Chicago Jewish Academy and Yeshiva High School, we congratulate you, the members of the graduating class of 1966 (5726), upon the formal completion of your secondary school career. Your class marks the twenty-first one, and the largest to date (numbering an even hundred), to have completed successfully the school's educational program in both sacred and secular studies.

It is interesting to note that your graduation falls during the year of "Shemittah", the Sabbatical Year in our religious calendar. You have learned that the seventh year, in the ancient Commonwealth of Israel, was utilized for national-educational ends as well—that special measures were taken to acquaint the men, women, and children with the teachings and duties of Torah. It is significant, therefore, that you have dedicated your lives to the same goals and have consecrated your educational endeavors in the realm of the Jewish spirit and traditional observance.

The year of your graduation is also characterized by the Eighteenth Anniversary Celebration of the State of Israel. The number eighteen is a significant figure in Jewish tradition, representing the numerical value of "chai" or life, or in this case an abbreviation for "cherut Yisrael". In the parlance of the American scene, as our twenty-first class, you have also "come of age" and reached the status of intellectual maturity. Reflecting upon these two basic ideas of "age" and "life", we may add that although you are still young in years, you are older in wisdom. Your life too has been enriched by the age-old truths of the Torah and Jewish learning.

May all of you, with the Almighty's blessings, build upon these foundation stones of Torah and Derech Eretz and live a meaningful Jewish life for many years to come, bringing glory to "klal Israel" and all of humanity.

ADMINISTRATION

Necessary to the functioning of any institution are those who work behind the scenes to ensure its smooth operation. Performing the numerous administrative tasks, determining school policy, and advising students about their problems and plans are the duties of the administration, without whose appreciated services the Academy could not carry on in its organized fashion.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The Executive

Through its representatives in Student Council, the student body governed itself this year. Meeting every week, Council elected, supervised, and evaluated its functional committees. Moreover, Council served as a forum of student opinion on topics ranging from gambling and Viet Nam to an honor system and apathy. Under the leadership of President Gary Novetsky, the officers and delegates once again proved themselves (re)presentable.

The Student Court met weekly to mete out to the school's selected few their "little teaching aids," which the deserving student might have discovered was—oh, no!—a ten thousand word composition or a healthy assignment washing classroom blackboards.

To the guillotine!

Attempting the almost impossible—keeping law and order in the Academy—hallguards and monitors chase pedestrians from the halls, clear ledges of leeches, and confiscate open locks. Success is noted in the lustrous ledges, calm corridors, and lockless lockers found throughout the building.

RELIGIOUS COMMITTEES

The Religious Committees were formed to collect prayerbooks, maintain order during services, and assist new students in their religious observances. Besides fulfilling these functions, they also presented two successful "Melaveh Malkahs", and attempted to improve further the Academy's religious atmosphere.

SERVICE COMMITTEE

The members of the Service Committee helped direct empty lunch trays and pop bottles to their respective places in the lunchrooms, and set up chairs for assemblies. The Yeshiva's Dormitory Committee helps to maintain the conditions in the "dorm." The thanks for the schools' noted cleanliness belongs to these hard working students.

TUTORING COMMITTEE

Tutors volunteered their time and services to help other students master their weaker subjects. Following the Talmudic maxim, "I learned much from my teachers, more from my collegues, but most of all from my own students," the tutors themselves gained the most knowledge from their experiences this past year.

ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE

To relieve the monotony of the long class hours, the assembly committee produced over twenty-five presentations this past year. Notable among its achievements were the Talent Show, Academy Bowl, Academy Awards, Daroma Singers, the Pesach and Purim plays, and "Beat the Clock." In addition, the committee brought numerous speakers to address the student body. Their topics ranged from Congress to the War on Poverty to Prejudice. All in all, assemblies were both interesting and enjoyable.

OUTSIDE ACTIVITIES

The Outside Activities committee spent long hours planning affairs which were very good but unfortunately too short. The committee sponsored several cultural presentations, including an outdoor bonfire at which Mrs. Stacy's husband read a very literary tale. And at press-time we looked forward to the Lag B'Omer Outing.

The fall committee also took on the added work of producing Winter Revue, which they financed through a bake sale and play presentation. The affair was elegant and sophisticated, and added "a taste of honey" to the memories of all who attended.

ACADEMOCRAT

vol. XXIV

Room 105 bustled with excitement, confusion, and wild satisfaction as the Academocrat emerged from an exhilarating year as a first rate newspaper. Introducing many new ideas—mimeographed issues, interviews with prominent personalities, the election results (their first scoop!), a new make-up, a humor issue, and rousing editorials, which, in the words of Editor David Stern, "took sides and offered biased, partial views"—the Academocrat was read and enjoyed by the students. The staff, editor, and sponsor, Miss Karp, deserve many thanks for a job well-done.

We'll try again . . . next year.

MOREH DERECH

The Moreh Derech, published in a new format this year, developed into a journal of religious thought. Under the guidance of Rabbi Juzint, the Moreh Derech featured articles on several new subjects of Jewish interest.

The Bnos Torah, the religious publication for girls, furnished the Academy girl with columns on religious philosophy, the problems of a babysitter, prayer, and Israeli politics. More informative and interesting than in previous years, the Bnos Torah attracted an avid audience.

PIONEER

The Pioneer helped keep its publisher, the Girls' School, in close contact with the Academy despite the girls' avowed independence from their "Mother Country". Including creative writing, articles of a religious nature, and puzzles, the Pioneer offers both escape and insight for its readers.

MEMOIRS 1966

Memoirs 1966 is many things for many people. For some, it is the record of their high school career or senior year. For the staff, the annual has been: hard work and long hours writing and drawing; worry about raising sufficient funds; frantic tension meeting deadlines; angry arguments when ideas and ideals crossed; and warm satisfaction viewing the finished book. We hope that you enjoy this annual as much as we enjoyed creating it.

BASKETBALL

Basketball is the Academy sport. Following the poet's advice, "When the One Great Scorer comes to mark you, He judges not whether you won or lost but how you played the game," the team dedicated the season to mastering the sport. Though victories were few and dear, the season's end brought satisfaction to the players in the knowledge that they had put forth their best efforts, and had learned to play, succeed, and fail as a unit. With many players returning, prospects for next season look brighter.

Despite a late start, the Volleyball team proved itself one of the Academy's more successful sports. The girls worked hard at practice, and were rewarded by winning a volley of games.

You need not be afraid of those ferocious looking beasts in the photograph shown above. They're the Yeshiva football team, who despite having had an undefeated season, are really very harmless.

Two years gone, the third's a blast,
It's wild it's fun; it just can't last.
You dominate the Council floor,
And talk and talk and talk some more.
You write and stage your own affair.
The curtains part; the world is there.

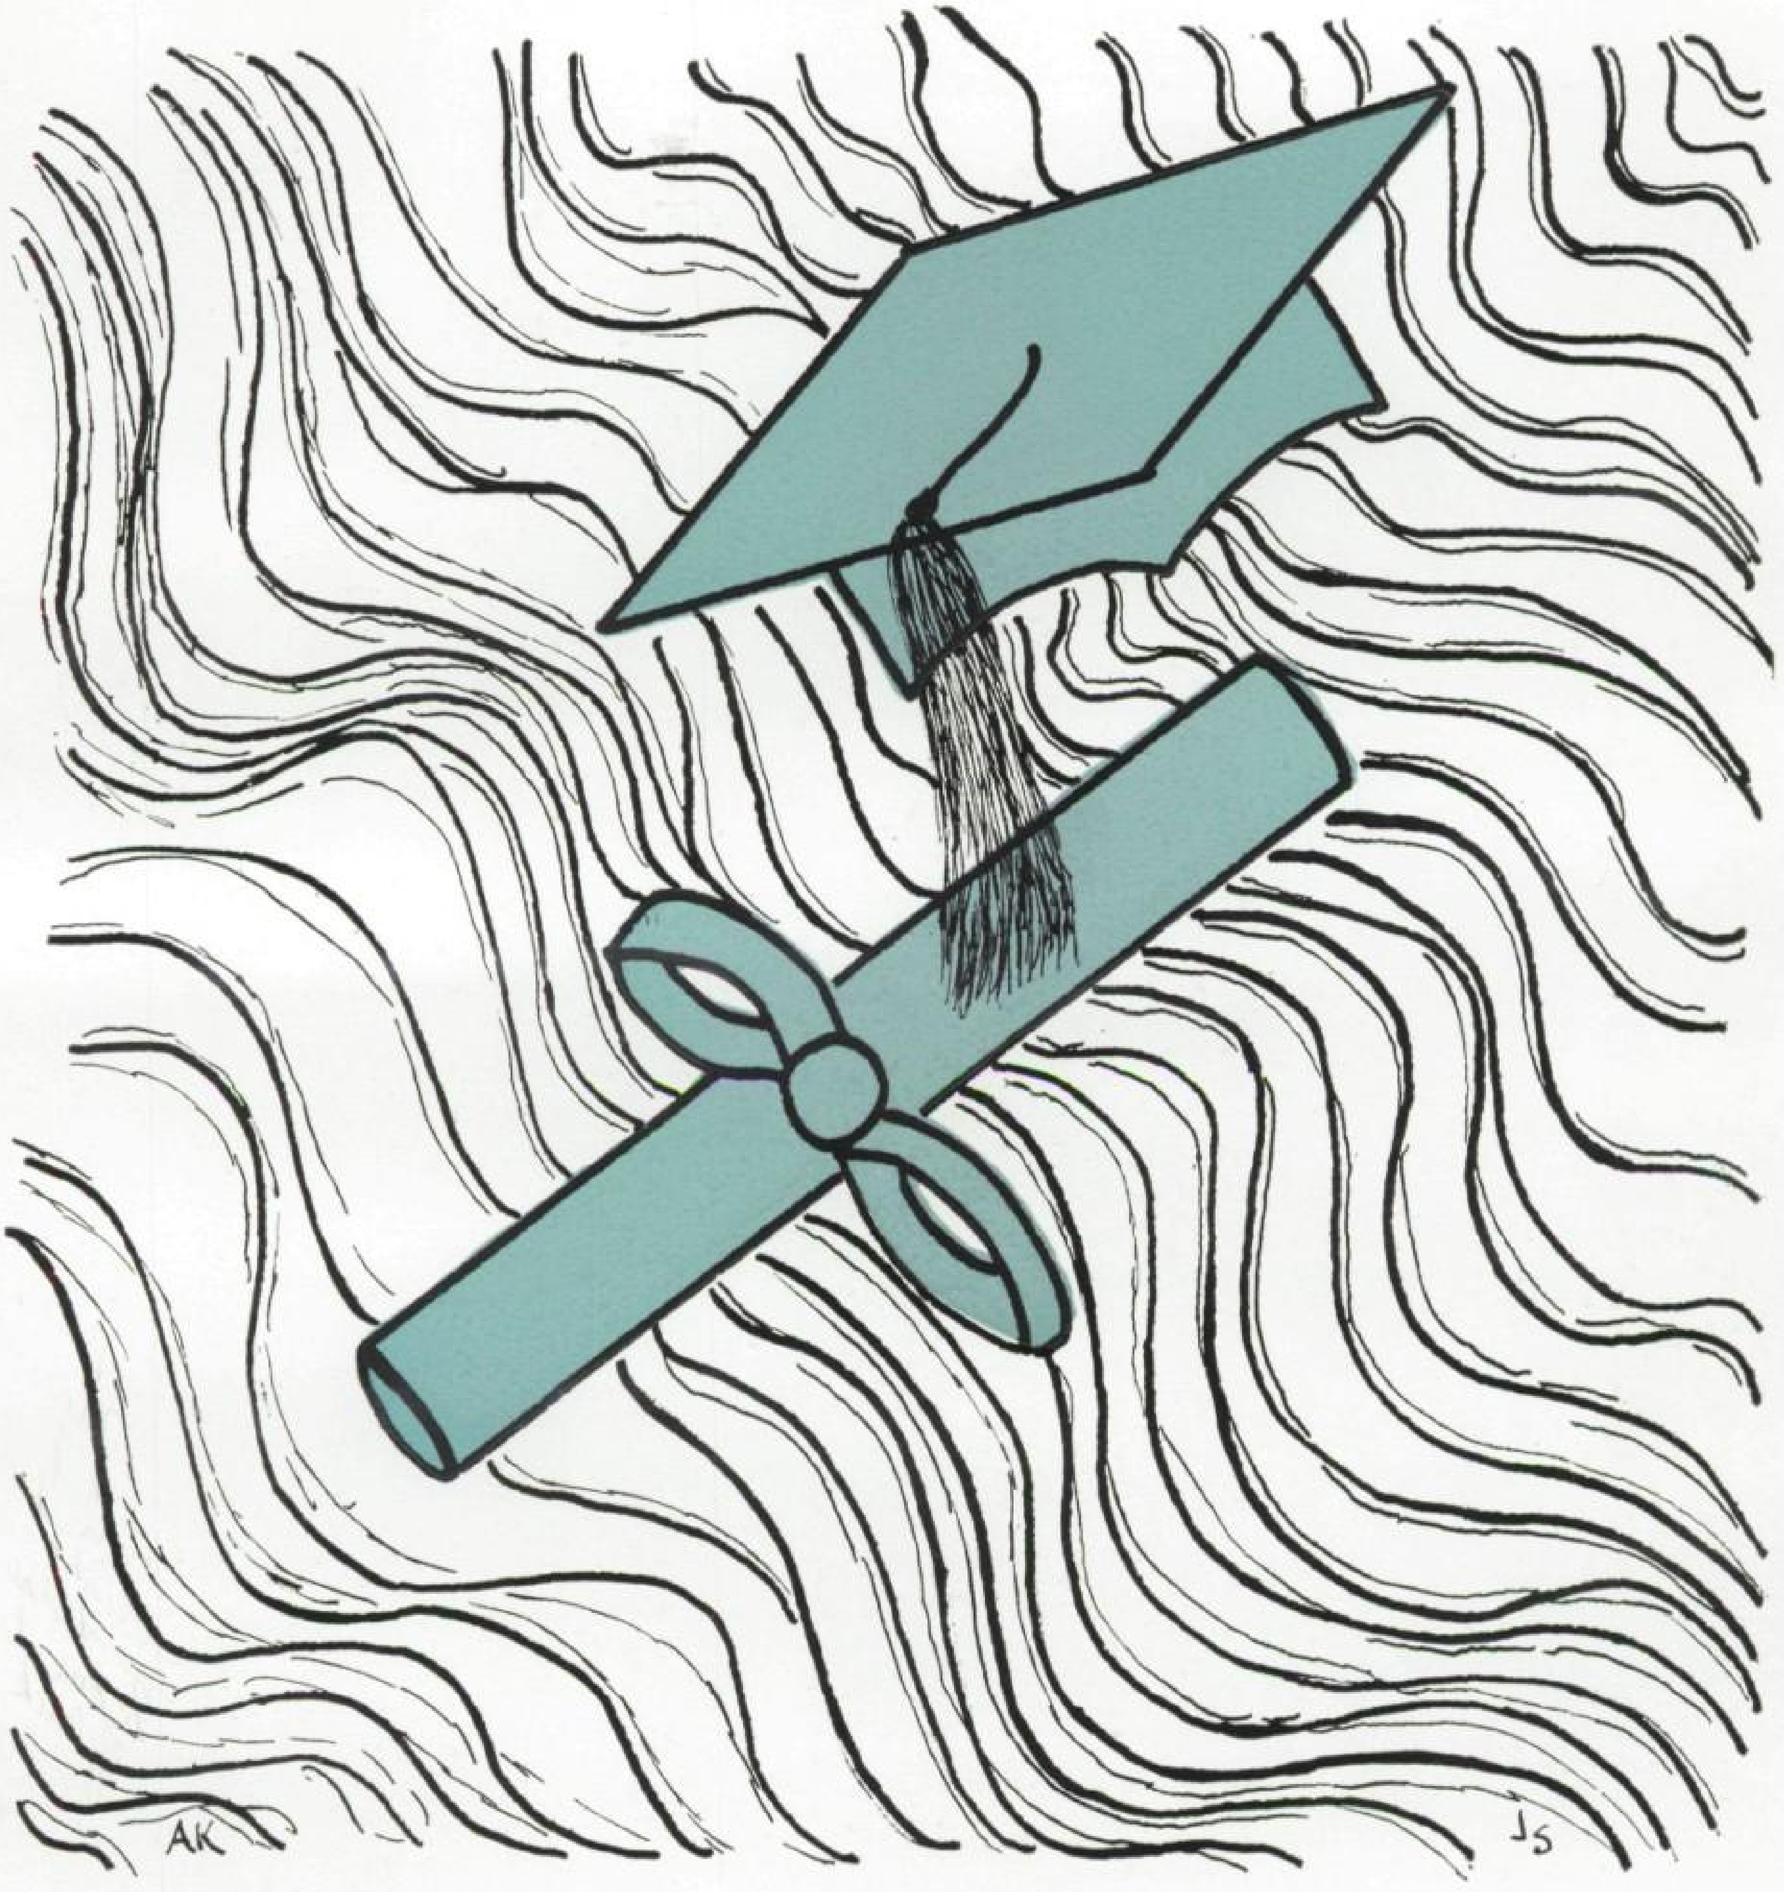
JUNIORS



O, for the year gone past: spirited class meetings, dikduk tests, term papers and The Inferno, S.A.T.'s, A.C.T.'s, and harried college applications, and the foreknowledge that this was our last. I suddenly awaken to find myself responsible for my past deeds as well as future success. I am a senior.

"WHERE ART THOU?"

"Where art thou?" said the little man.
I answered, "I am looking too."
"Where art thou?" said the little man.
I answered, "It is still too new."

"Where art thou?" said the little man.
All I could do was smile.
"Where art thou?" said the little man.
I answered, "Where do you begin?"

"Where art thou?" said the little man.
I answered, "In your heart and mind."
"Where art thou?" said the little man.
All I could do was smile.

"Where art thou?" said the little man.
I answered, "It can not be seen."
"Where art thou?" said the little man.
I answered, "It is shown in deeds.

"Where art thou?" said the little man.

"Where art thou?" said the little man.

IN THE DISTANT DARKNESS

I hear a sound in the distance and slowly I walk toward it it is dark all around me and my eyes cannot see, but what my eyes cannot see, my ears can perceive:
the sound
the distance
the direction

my mind knows all for it feels the vibrations in my ears.
all others walk purposelessly about me, engulfed in the darkness that steals over their mind and makes their faculties useless but I slowly walk on knowing where I go, what I do,
through the feeling of my ears
and the knowledge of my mind

IN FLIGHT

I hear in every growing blade and bush and tree
A sound of life, a flowing, streaming call upward.
I hear in every wave a roaring challenge,
exulted cry;
In every rushing wind and gentle breeze
a voice, a story, a joy to share.

Filling my body's every fibre this voice,
this challenge, cry of youth and joy Stretches me and reaching out and up I touch the floating clouds, Laugh with the singing breeze at the struggling sun and I FLY.
Hand in hand with friends, I soar and whirl
up, always up;
Following the fluid of the trees, the flow
of the oil,
The thrust of the earth that creates mountains—
young, strong, jagged
And sends hot, angry lava bursting from its bowels.

Above, all falls, all fears, all clouds,
Each nerve reacts in ecstacy as I lightly brush against those flying with me,
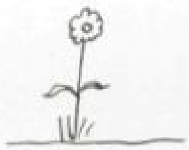
A bed of grass becomes unbearable,
An easy touch the greatest pain.

DON SPIVAK



A SUMMER'S DAY

It was hot—the hottest day folks in the county could remember. The air was still. There wasn't even a whisper of a breeze. Everything stopped and hung in the heat as if in suspended animation. Most of the townspeople sat quietly in the shade of their porches. The only movement they made was to flutter their fans, back and forth, in feeble attempts to stir the torpid atmosphere.

The usual noises of the little town were absent. No one had the strength to Indian wrestle or listen to the seven-piece band. Human voices were silenced. So the people sat around, fanning themselves, and listened to the day.

In the distance, the creaking of the mill wheel sounded and resounded as the water pushed the contraption around. The constant crack of the wood reminded one of the mill's age. She was getting old now, the poor girl. In the woods, which lay on the east side of the town, the quail waddled quickly over the dry leaves, making a crisp crackling sound. Had one the strength, a man could have bagged a few of the fowl for supper. But today no one moved; they just listened.

One boy had braved the torrid weather to go fishing in the stream. Now he was returning, pole resting on his shoulder with several fish dangling from it. The lad whistled a lilting tune which penetrated the limp air and remained there, hauntingly, for several moments after the boy was gone.

The sun reached its peak, then slowly descended and as it did, the air began to stir. In a hushed whisper, a breeze blew tenderly through the listless branches of the trees. As the sun slipped below the horizon, the whisper became louder and the breeze sounded like a man's deep breathing —in and out—evenly. Then it became a crescendo of wind blowing, thunder rumbling, people running and shouting, rain falling.

The day ended and the heat was dispelled. The night rushed in.

THE STORM

Jagged streaks of lightning pierced the sky.
Thunder roared and crashed.
The rain fell in torrents.
The sea became a black swirling mass of windlashed waves—
Higher and higher they rose, and fell—before me.
Alone I faced the fury of the heavens and sea.
Man against the almighty powers of nature.
The craft rocked to and fro, caught in the angry whirlpool of the winds and waves.
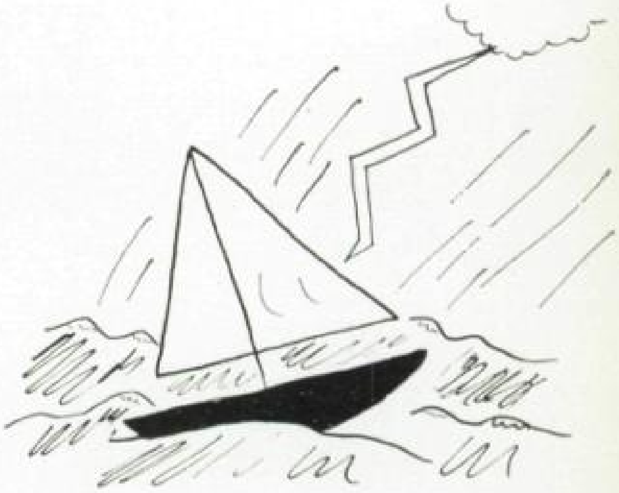
Oh G-d! Is there no hope? Is there no mercy?
Must I succumb to the cold depths of the sea?
The winds lashed my face.
The waves pounded against the deck.
I cried, and the tears flowed freely.
A strange rumbling was heard in the distance—
and then no more.
A light illuminated the sky—
and then was gone.
The roaring ceased.
The turbulent sea grew calm and tranquil.
Daybreak came,
And the sun cast its golden rays upon the shimmering waters.

EILEEN SHUSTER



SOUNDS NOT REMEMBERED

Aoogah, Aoogah—Abandon Ship—Aoogah. Over the public address system came these words; no conscious person was surprised. After taking several direct hits from enemy submarines, the U. S. S. Life was a violent mass of flames rapidly fading from sight under a blanket of cool oblivion. Men were animals in their rush to escape the watery entombment, but not all could make it. Aoogah.

Down in the forward steering room were three men who knew they were doomed to die. The exit hatch was jammed shut, and without the three hours necessary to cut themselves free, they had no chance. All that was left was a hole in the deck and an emergency light on the ceiling. Aoogah.

The twenty-two year old boy, the thirty-five year old ensign, and the forty-year old father were down there together. The ensign moved through the water to try to pray in a corner. The father took out some snapshots of his wife and children and cried over them. The boy stood trembling where he was—where he was to be forever. Sudenly he noticed the ensign in the corner motioning to him, and he swam to the voice that begged him, "Teach me how to pray." The twenty-two year old man looked at him and said, "Amen." The water closed over his head. Aoogah.

THE VOICE OF SPRING

The hills are alive with the voice of Spring,
With whispering virtues she tells of ev'rything.
The sweet caress of her gentle breeze,
As she sings through the fields, her undying pleas.
She wants to make known, what has come before,
As she gazes on a hill.
She speaks truthfully, while nature asks for more,
And awakens one last daffodil.
Her voice carries through like a babbling brook,
As she shouts her success.
Her cry is complete, complete as a book,
But Spring can never rest.

SHARON BINDER

THE SOUNDS OF LIFE

The sounds of life are wonderful and varied Usefulness and motion resounding in a world of productivity.
Big streets bustling with horns honking,
wind blowing, people moving.
Radiators humming, babies crying,
neighbors complaining through thin walls,
Seasons changing, sea roaring,
rain falling, ice cracking under nimble feet.
Hammers knocking, mowers cutting,
cheering the ball out of the park.
Books rustling, pencils scratching,
bells ringing, chalk screeching in young hands.
But the sounds of death are only one—
Just the silent drop of tears echoing in a temporary void.

ELLEN FARKAS

UNTITLED ANGUISH

I listen and I hear the voices, the voices of many people, crying in the distance, and my ears turn to catch their lips, and my eyes seek out their person but they're always in the distance and we never meet.
And I hear the words which spell the facts of tomorrow, full of vital issues, which inform and state, but my mind is deaf and the echo of their importance vibrates in the drums of my ears and dies out finally leaving no impression.
And the cries of little children with their love-begotten toys playing in the streets fill the monotony of the dead of life and I turn to them and try to enter their world, but it is locked to me and I cannot come into the warmth of their where.
And a crow cries the cray of night and sweeps down and with its eagle hawks swoops up the little babies on the ground crying for their three o'clock milk warmed to the temperature the nurse told mothers by the thousands wouldn't burn the infants' tender throats.
And I, man, hear all these voices and their roar is beyond my strength and I cover my ears with both hands and bury my head in the abyss of my thighs and try to escape to the sound of a secure silence. And when the voices arrive I flee in confusion to succeed at times and when not, to return defeated.
And with the angst of a dying man who sees the horror of life before the brink is crossed, I cry out. And the multitudes stand before my eyes like Israel at Sinai, and hear the fullness of my despair, their skeletal orbs widening, teeth chattering white, and then they choose, not forced by fate, and walk away and turn their backs on me and each on the other.

מוסר, ודברי חכמה. ספר בן סירא אינו ספר קדש. במשך כמה דורות חכמינו התוכחו אם מותר לקרא בספר בן סירא או לא. רבי עקיבא אמר שספר בן סירא הוא אחד מהספרים האסורים בקריאה. „בין אלה שאין להם חלק לעולם הבא אף הקורא בספרים חיצונים״. רבי יוסף האמורא אמר שאסור לקרא ספר בן סירא כי יש בו דברי הבל, כגון. „מי שזקנו דק וחלוש היא חכם וחריף ומי שזקנו עבה הוא שוטה״. רש״י מפרש שאסור לקרא בספר בן סירא כי יש בו דברים סודיםשקשה להבין ואיש יכול לבאר את דבריו שלא כהוגן... „מפני שכל אלה הם דברי רוח ולכן אין קורין בו״. מצד שני רואים שיש כאלה שאמרו שמותר לקרא בספר בן סירא. בגמרא ובספרי רס״ג אנו רואים שגדולינו צטטי דברי בן סירא למעלה מארבעים פעמים, ואפילו רב יוסף, הנזכר לעיל, שאמר שיש בו דברי הבל ובכן אסור לקרא בו, מודה שבן סירא נותן לפעמים עצות טובות, כגון: „אשה טובה מתנה טובה״. למרות שיש דעות האוסרות לקרא להשתמש בספר בן סירא יש הרבה מקומות שחז״ל צטטו דבריו בשפע.

בפרק נ׳ דספר בן סירא רואים ששמו של בן סירא היה יהושע בן סירא אלא רס״ג קורא אותו שמעון בן ישוע בן אלעזר בן סירא והוא לקח שם זה מכתב יד עתיק שהיה לו. כמו שאין לט ידיעות ברורות על שמו כך אין לנו ידיעות על החיים הפרטים של בן סירא. למרות זה יכולים להבין מדבריו שהוא גר בעיר גדולה ביהודה היה עשיר וחי חיי מותרות והיה חכם, מלומד ואיש ישר.

אין אנחנו יודעים בדיוק מתי בן סירא חי ויש שתי דעות בענין זה. יש אומרים שהוא חי בערך בשנת 180 לפני מא״ה. במבוא לספר בן סירא שכתב, כנראה, נכדו בזמן שהוא תרגם הספר מעברית ליונית הוא כותב שהוא בא מצרימה.

. . . „בשנת שלושים ושמנה לימי המלך אורגיטיס״. מלך אורגיטיס היא תלמי השביעי שמלך משנת 170 עד שנת 113 לפני מא״ה. מסתבר מזה שבן סירא חי בשנת 180 לפני מא״ה. ויש אומרים שהאיש שתרגם את ספרו של בן סירא לא היה נכדו אלא אחד מצאצאיו ובאמת בן סירא חי בזמן שמעון הצדיק, בערך בשנת 300 לפני מא״ה.

אף־על־פי שספר בן סירא אינו ספר הסטוריה אנו יכולים לתאר לעצמנו מתוך דבריו את חיי עם ישראל בימיו. בזמן העם היה עובד ה׳ ומרכז חייו הרוחניים היה בית המקדש. רק פעם אחת בכל הספר בן סירא מוכיח את העם שיביאו קרבנות אך ורק מתוך הרגשה של תשובה. אולם החיים החברתיים לא היו בסדר. העשירים לחצו את העניים, העניים לחצו את הגרים וכל האוירה היתה מלאה לשון הרע. כמעט בכל פרק בן סירא מדגיש חשובות המצוות שבין אדם לחברו. נוסף לזה רואים מספרי שבזמנו העם היה מתחיל לחקות את דרך חיי המותרות והתענוגים של היונים.

לכאורה ספר בן סירא נראה כספר פילוסופיה של חיים. אבל באמת קשה לתאר אותו כך. ספר בן סירא הוא רק ספר של הדרכות טובות. על ידי ההוראות האלו בן סירא רוצה להתיות לעם אורח חיים טובים. הרעיון המרכזי הזה מתבלט מן המושגים החוזרים ונשנים כמעט בכל פרק: חכמה היא יראת ה׳, ה׳ הוא צדיק והוא גומל טוב לצדיק ורע לרשע, ה׳ הוא בעל רחמים, ומאריך אף ומחכה לאדם שיתרחק מן הרע. בדרך כלל הספר מדריך את האדם איך להתנהג בכל יום ובכל עת עם ה׳ ועם האדם.

סגנון ספר בן סירא דומה לסגנון של שירי התנ״ך. הוא משתמש הרבה בתקבולת. ובהרבה מקומות בן סירא משתדל לחקות סגנון ספר משלי. לפעמים בן סירא משתמש בפתגמים קצרים כדי שהעם ישמר בזכרונו את הגנוז בתוכם. כגון: „עדות ה׳ מקור חכמה ומצוותיה הם אורחותיה״. „בטוב לך זכור הרע ובצר לך זכור הטוב״. בונה ביתו בהון אחרים כונס אבנים להקים קברו״.

הקראים

לאחר חורבן הבית השני רבים מן החרמים עברו לבבל ושם יסדו ישיבות חשובות שהשפיעו על עתידו של עם ישראל בחיבור התלמוד ובהפצת תורה ברבים. בראש שתי הישיבות החשובות ביותר שהיו המרכז הדתי של העם במאה השלישית והרביעית עמדו גאונים ובראש העדה היהודית היה ראש הגולה. אחד מהתפקידים של הגאונים היהמנוי ראש הגולה, שבדרך כלל היה עובר מאב לבנו הבכור בירושה. בערך בשנת שבע מאות ששים ושתים מת ראש הגולה שלימה ממשפחת בוסתנאי ולא היו לו יורשים חוץ משני בני אחיו ענן וחנניה. משום שהגאונים חשדו בענן שהוא אפיקורת גאון סורא וגאון פומפדיסא בחרו בחנניה. אף על פי שבשנים ובמעלה ענן היה ראוי למשרה זו.

ענן יצא מן הארץ חפוי ראש ונע ונד מארץ לארץ ובנדודיו פגש בבן אדם בשם אבו חניפה שהכניסו לפני ולפנים של שיטת ה„שיעה״ שבאסלם המאמינה רק בקורן ולא ב„סנה״ המסורת שבעל פה של האסלם. ענן ראה שביהדות זה גם כן אפשרי ר׳ רואים שכך האמינו הצדוקים בימי קדם. ובכן הוא יסד „סיעה״ שכזאת ביהדות הוא הביע את רעיונותיו ביהדות הוא הביע את רעיונותיו בפתגם „חדישו באורייתא שפיר״. זאת אומרת שכל בן אדם צריך לפרש את התורה לפי דעתו.

אחד מהגדולים בתנועת הענגים כמו שקראו לכת זו, היה בנימין הנהואנדי, ששנה את שמם של המאמינים מעננים לקראים, מפני שעסקו רק בלמוד המקרא. הוא היה הקראי הראשון שכתב בעברית. היו לו כמה ספרים חשובים כמו „ספר דינים״ ו„ספר מצוות״.

אחד מגדולי הלוחמים מלחמת ה׳ נגד שיטת הקראים היה רב סעדיה גאון, שכתב הרבה מאמרים נגד הקראים. הגאון רצה לקרב את הקראים, כי ראה שהדת נוסדה על אי הבנה של התנ״ך, המפרשים, והתלמוד. רב סעדיה ראה בהם יהודים שנפרשו מהצבור, כי אף על פי שנקראו בשם אחר הם באמת עודם יהודים וחיבים בכל המצוות ובכן הם חוטאים בכל יום ויום בשמירת דתם החדשה. ולכן רב סעדיה הטיל על עצמו חוב קדוש להציל את קהל הקראים מאבדון, כי כל המקים נפש אחת מישראל כאילו קים עולם מלא, על אחת כמה וכמה קהל גדול מישראל. מצוה כזאת כשבאה לידיו של סעדיה לא היה יכול להתמיצנה ובאמת הציל רבים מעון.

הקראים יסדו את דתם על התורה שבכתב. הם נסו להבין את התורה במובנה המלולי בלי לשים לב לתורה שבעל פה, למאור שביהדות, והזניחו את חכמת גדולי התורה בכל הדורות מזמן מתן תורה עד ימיו של ענן.

ארח החיים של התנועה היה קשה מאד. ומשום זה היא התחילה להדרדר מטה, מטה ואז התבוללות עשתה את שלה . . . כיום הקראים הם רק מתי מספר ההולכים ונעלבים כליל.

שושנה נלסן

בנוסח דיבורו, ובכל גישתו לחיים. אצילות אמיתית נשקפת בתוך קלסתר פניו.

המשמעת ב„בית התלמוד" אשר בקלם היתה משמעת צבאית — כל אחד היה חייב לשפר את מדותיו ולשכלל את תכונות נפשו. הסיסמה היתה לא כפי ששומעים היום: הן אתה רק בן אדם — אלא „דע לך כי אתה אדם וכוחותיך הם בלתי מוגבלים לעלות מעלה מעלה בסולם השלמות הנפשית." כדי להשיג את זה תורת המוסר החדירה לתוך כתלי הישיבה הרצאות מיוחדות ו„שיחות מוסר" שהרחיבו את השקפת עולמם של התלמידים והכניסו אותם לעולם מלא רוממות רוח ואהבת ישראל אמיתית. כדי לתת לתלמידים הדרכה מוסרית, בישיבה סידרה חבורות להשתלמות עצמית: תיקון המדות, עיבוד הכוחות, העמקת הדעת, וכו'. לכל תלמיד היה טיפול אינדיבידואלי, ההולם את מצב נפשו ותכונת רוחו וככה השתדלה קלם להכשיר אותו לקראת עתידו, כדי שיזכה להיות לאור לישראל ולתפארת לאנושות.

„בית התלמוד" בקלם היה בית היוצר לנשמת האומה, והתלמידים ראו בו את בית־מקדשם, ובגדולי התורה והמוסר ראו את קברניטיה של האומה. כל האוירה היתה מלאה קדושה, ההשפעה היתה עצומה, כי אפילו לאחר שבנו התלמידים בית בישראל נשארו תמיד קשורים אל מקור מחצבתם, ובכל דבר גדול או קטן בהליכות החיים, היו סרים למשמעת קלם. מתקופה לתקופה היו שבים לקלם לזמן מסיים כדי לשהות בצל אצילות הכוח ורוממות הנפש ולהצטייד מחדש בכוחות מרעננים. ויש אשר היו מבלים באוירה של הישיבה בכל שנה מראש חדש אלול עד אחרי יום הכפורים.

לישיבה יצאו מוניטין בכל תפוצות הגולה, לא רק בתור מקום תלמוד, אבל גם כבית חנך נפלא — בית יוצר ליהדות המפתח שלמות נפשית ומעצב מאורי חכמה.

השואה הנוראה התריבה עולם ומלואו. קלם הארצית נחרבה, אבל קלם השמימית עוד היום קיימת.

„יד ד' בעולם"

המלה טבע, היא מלשון הטבעה — השקעה ד' הטביע את רצונו בעולם באופן נסתר, ומפני שאנו כל כך רגילים למעשי הטבע, קשה לנו להכיר את רצון. ד' מתוך הטבע. בדרך כלל רק שינוי הטבע, או מה שאנו קוראים נס, מעורר את בני האדם לראות את יד ד' בעולם. מטעם זה אנו קוראים שינוי בטבע בשם נס. כי הנס מבליט לעינינו שד' מנהיג העולם.

ד' ברא את העולם בעשרה מאמרות וכל ההסדר הזה הוא נס. יש שני מיני נס, נסים נגלים, כגון קריעת ים סוף, אש מן השמים ופך השמן של חנוכה, ונסים נסתרים, כמו הנס של פורים שליא היה בו שום שינוי בסדר הטבע.

האדם צריך להבין שכמו שנס מראה השגחת ד' בעולם, כך הטבע היום — יומי מראה את זה. הטבע איננו מציאות לעצמו אלא צורה של השגחה העליונה.

כתוב בישעהו „שאו מרום עיניכם וראו מי ברא אלה" זאת אומרת שאדם מחויב להרים את עיניו למעלה להסתכל ולהבונן בשמים, בכוכבים, בשמש, בירית, ובכל מהלך הטבע. כמו שכתוב בתהילים י"ט, „השמים מספרים כבוד א־ל ומעשה ידיו מגיד הרקיע".

אברהם אבינו, חז"ל מספרים לנו, הגיע להכרת הבורא מעצמו על ידי התעמקות בטבעו של עולם.

ראשי תיבות של שלשת המלים הראשונות של הפסוק „שאו מרום עיניכם" הם „שמע". כאשר חושבים על כל הטובות שהקב"ה עושה בשבילנו בחיים היום — יומים מוכרחים להכיר בחסדו של בורא העולם מנהיגיו ונאלצים להגיע להבות הצו המוחלט של קבלת עול מלכות שמים, „שמע ישראל".

העולם הוא ספר נפלא על כל עמודיו ופרקיו, אין ספר בלי סופר , אין עולם בלי בורא. הקב"ה ליא רק ברא את העולם אלא גם שולט ומשגיח עליו. הטבע והנס הם גלויים שונים של רצון השם.

בכל יום ויום מתרחשים נסים כי הבורא יתברך מחדש בטובו בכל יום תמיד מעשי בראשית, אלא צריכים להסתכל לתוך תוכו של הטבע כדי להשיג את פלאותיו.

ספר בן סירא אחד מהספרים החיצונים

הספרים שנכתבו בעברית או בארמית מזמן חתימת התנ"ך עד תקופת התנאים, נקראים בשם ספרים חיצונים. בעיני כמה דתות העולם, הם ספרים קדושים. רבי עקיבא במסכת סנהדרן מונה „בין אלה שאין להם חלק בעולם הבא אף כקורא בספרים חיצונים". רש"י מפרש שחז"ל אסרו קריאה בהם כי יש בם דברים שמביאים האדם לביטול תורה. בתלמוד ירושלמי כתיב „אמרו ספרים חיצונים כגון ספר בן סירא וספר בן לענה (נאסרו) אבל ספר המורם וכל ספרים שוכתבו מכאן ואילך הקורא בהם כקורא באגרת". מהמקום הזה יש אלו שלמדו שלא אסור לקרא בספרים חיצונים כמו שקוראים בספרים פשוטים אלא אסור לקרא בהם פומבי' כדברי תורה. הראשונים מבארים שמותר לקרא בספרים חיצונים כדי לדעת מה להשיב לאלה שקוראים בספרים האלה ושואלים שאלות על היהדות ממה שכתוב בספרים האלה. וגם יכולים לקרא הטוב ודברים שיש בם טעם מהספרים החיצונים וזה מסביר למה התנאים, האמוראים, והגאונים, כמוהרס"ג צטטו מהספרים החיצונים.

יש חמישה מיני ספרים חיצונים וכולם לא נכתבו ברוח הקדש. סוג ראשון הוא ספרים גנוזים הם הספרים שאנשי כנסת הגדולה אסרו בקריאה ושמו אותם בגניזה כדי שהעם לא יהיו יכולים לקרא בהם כי לפעמים תוכן הספרים התנגד למסורת. סוג שני הוא כתובים אחרונים הם נכתבו אחר שהנבואה פסקה מישראל. הספרים האלה אינם אסורים בקריאה. סוג שלישי הוא ספרי חזיונות. הספרים האלה מדברים על העתיד בדרך חזיון. סוג רביעי הוא ספרי חול. הספרים האלה מדברים על נושאי חיל. חז"ל אסרו קריאה בהם משום בטול תורה. הסוג האחרון הוא ספרי המינים. אנשי כנסת הגדולה אסרו קריאה בהם לכל הדורות.

כל ספר וספר של הספרים החיצונים שונה בתוכנו ובסגנונו. לפי תכנם יכולים לחלק אותם לחימשה חלקים: ספרי הסטוריה ספרי אגדה, ספרי תהלות ומזמורים, ספרי חזיונות, וספרי משלים, מוסר ודברי חכמה.

אחד מהספרים החיצונים הוא ספר בן סירא. הוא ספר משלים,

4) סדר נזיקין־הדן בחוקים הקובעים את יחס האדם לזולת ולחברה.

5) סדר קדשים־הדן בקרבנות ועבודת המקדש.

6) סדר טהרות־הכולל דיני טומאה וטהרה.

לשון המשנה היא לשון עברית טהורה, ברורה, ומדויקת.

הרעיונות החשובים שהמשנה מדגישה הם: 1) רעיון השויון של כל בני אדם, ללא הבדל של מוצא, גזע, ומעמד. כמו שנאמר: „למה נברא האדם יחידי? — — — — מפני שלום הבריות, שלא יאמר אדם לחברו אבא שלי גדול מאביך”. 2) החשיבות של מידת השלום הבאה מתוך עוז וגדולה ולא מתוך חולשה, שנאמר: „לא מצא הקדוש ברוך הוא כלי מחזיק ברכה לישראל אלא השלום, ככתוב, ה' עוז לעמו יתן, ה' יברך את עמו בשלום”. 3) הערך הגדול של הנשואין ותכונתה הסגולתית של האשה המכשירה אותה למלא את תפקידה המיוחד, להיות „עזר כנגדו”, אם למשפחה, ואחת האמהות של דורות עם ישראל.

כאשר נגמרה העבודה של עריכת המשנה, היא נתקבלה בכח סמכות נשיאותו של רבי במהרה בכל בתי המדרש, ודחתה מפניה את שאר אוספי ההלכה. כל החכמים העריצו את ר' יהודה וחלקו לו כבוד קדושים.

ר' יהודה הנשיא נפטר בשנת 210 לספירה הכללית. פטירתו מן העולם עשתה רושם עז על כל בני דורו, ואבל כבד הוכרז לשנה שלמה.

„חבל על דאבדין ולא משתכחין”.

הרב דון יצחק אברבנאל

דון יצחק אברבנאל נולד בליסבינא בשנת אלף ארבע מאות שלשים ושבע. המשפחה שלו היתה נכבדה בחצר המלכות של פורטוגאל. כאשר ר' יצחק עוד היה צעיר, היו יכולים לראות שהוא חכם לא רק ביהדות אבל בפילוסופיה ובחכמות חיצוניות. מורו היה ר' יוסף חיין, ובנעוריו, ר' יצחק כתב ספר „עטרת זקנים” על נבואה. אחר כך, הוא התחיל לפרש את התנ"ך, ובפרושיו, שהיו שונים מפרושי רש"י ומפרשים האחרים ר' יצחק התכון להבליט את היופי הפנימי של היהדות והמאור שבתורה. הוא חבר עובוא בסגנון עברי יפה לכל ספר בתנ"ך, כדי לבאר זמן כתיבתו וסגנון לשונו ותוכנו כאשר ר' יצחק הביט על הרשע והעול הנורא הנעשה ליהודי דורו על ידי כל אומות העולם, וראה את היהודיו מגורשים מכל ארץ ומדינה באכזריות גדולה ובכל זאת, מוסרים עצמם על קדוש ד', החליט בדעתו שרק יד הקדוש ברוך הוא יכולה להציל אותם מהשמדה, ושהמשיח מוכרח לבוא בדורו. כדבר ישעיהו: „ועוד בה עשיריה ושבה, והיתה לבער כאלה וכאלון אשר בשלכת מצבת בם זרע קדש מצבתה”, ובכן היה מצפה בעליל בכל רגע שכלל ישראל יעשה תשובה שלמה בלב תמים, ויזכה לגאולה השלמה. ולכן, קבל על עצמו את צו השעה ובספריו הרבים תאר את תקופת הזוהר של המשיח ותחית המתים כדי להפיג את היאוש מלב העם ולעורר בו תקוה והתעוררות עצומה של תשובה גמורה. ר' יצחק התפרסם בעולם גם כאיש מעשה. הוא ישב תחילה בפורטוגאל והיה קרוב למלכות. הוא היה מפורסם בעשרו ובחכמתו. אבל כאשר פרץ מרד האצילים, הוכרח לברח לספרד וגם שם היה קרוב למלכות. המלך מנה אותו לשר מסים בספרד והוא התעשר מזה. בשנת אלף ארבע מאות תשעים ושתים נגזר הגרוש על יהודי ספרד, ר' יצחק הבטיח לתת הרבה כסף למלך, אם הוא יבטל את הגזרה, אבל המלך לא הסכים. בראש הגולים יצא ר' יצחק מספרד והלך לניאפולי. הוא נתקבל שם בכבוד גדול אבל הרגיש שהוא גר שם כי הוא לא הבין את המנהגים והלשון ולא היו גדולי תורה בניאפולי ואפילו בית ספר יהודי לא היה בעיר. ר' יצחק השתדל לשפר את המצב והוא עשה גדולות בארץ ואפילו נתקרב למלכות. בזמן שצרפת לכדה את הארץ, ר' יצחק הלך לויניציה, ובה הוא חבר רוב פרושו על ספר ישעיהו, וכתב שו ספר הנקרא „ראש אמונה”. בויניציה ר' יצחק ראה שם את בניו שלא ראם מזמן צאתו מספרד.

הוא מת בשנת אלף חמש מאות ושמונה בויניציה אבל נקבר בפדואה כי היה אסור לקבר יהודים בויניציה. ובשנת אלף תשע מאות וארבע, היהודים הקימו מצבת זכרון על קברו: — האיש דון יצחק אברבנאל נסתלק, אבל תורתו הולכת ומשפיעה בכל הדורות..

„בית התלמוד” בקלם

עמוד התוך של תנועת המוסר

בהיסטוריה של עם ישראל הגיעה תקופה שבה פשוטי העם חדלולהביט על התורה כעל השקפת עולם ותפיסת חיים; ראו בה רק עול של קיום מצוות. משום זה תנועת המוסר שקבלה על עצמה לחזק את האמונה בישראל התחילה להתפתח בכל מלוא תפארתה. מיסדה של התנועה הזאת היה ר' ישראל סלנטר (1810—1883). הוא הסביר את שיטת המוסר. הוציאה לרשות הרבים, העמיקה והרחיבה, קבע לה פרטים וכללים ויצר ממנה תנועה ציבורית, תנועה של עליה אישית והשתלמות עצמית. אבל בכל זאת מצבו הרוחני של עמנו עוד לא היה בסדר. בליטא, בתי הישיבות היו רק במצב של התפתחות. רוב הבחורים היו מתאספים בבית המדרש בעיירה ולומדים תורה מפי הרב שבעיירה. כמובן, לא היתה תכנית מכוונת ללמודים — כל חייהם הקדישו ללמוד הגמרא, ולא שמו לב להתפתחותם הגופנית ולת לבושתם המוזנחת. ולא לחינם היו בחורי התורה ידועים בשם „בטלנים” או „בחורים עניים” וכבוד לומדי התורה היה ירוד מאד.

הבחורים הרגישו את עצמו עלובים ורוחם היתה נכאה. פה ושם ניסו רבותינו לשפר את מצב לומדי התורה והעם, אבל השינוי היסודי בא רק לאחר שהצליחו אחדים מאבות התנועה ליסד מוסדות תורה בשביל בני־ עליה שהיו כבר במדרגה גבוהה: „לומדים” מובהקים. מוסד תורה כזה נוסד בעיר הקטנה אשר בליטא — קלם.

ב„בית התלמוד” אשר בקלם שנקרא בשם ה„אוכספורד” של תנועת המוסר, ישב תלמידו המובהק של ר' ישראל סלנטר, רבי שמחה זיסל זיו (1824—1898): ה„סבא מקלם”. הוא השקה ממעיינות המוסר את כל אלה שנמשכו לקלם. בהמשך הזמן לא היתה „קלם” רק עיירה בליטא — היא היתה למושג רב — משמעות בעולם היהודות. כאשר אמרו על פלוני שהוא „קלמאי”, הרי לא התכוונו בזה שהוא נולד בקלם או אפילו למד בקלם זמן מסויים. התכוונו בזה לדבר אחר לגמרי; בהגדרה זאת רצו להדגיש שבאיש הזה ניכרת השיטה המוסרית של „בית התלמוד” אשר בקלם — שהאיש הזה הצליח לעלות במזרגת השלמות הנפשית שהצליח לפתח את ה„אדם” שבו — את צלם האלוקים שבו. באיש הזה השיטה ה„קלמאית” נכרת בכל הויתו, בדרך מחשבתו, באורח הליכותיו,

ר' יהודה הנשיא

רבנו הקדוש

ר' יהודה הנשיא נולד בשנת 135 לפי מנין אומות העולם. לפי המסורת, יום שמת ר' עקיבא, נולד ר' יהודה, וקראו עליו את המקרא „זרח השמש ובא השמש”.

ר' יהודה היה בן בכורו של רבן שמעון בן גמליאל הנשיא. כאשר אביו מת, ר' יהודה מלא את מקומו בנשאות ונהג נשיאותו ברמה. כבודו עלה בעולם היהודי במידה שלא זכו לה הנשיאים הקדמונים. ידוע המאמר, „משמת משה ועד רבי לא מצינו תורה וגדולה במקום אחד”. הוא היה היחיד בין כל חכמי הדורות שלא נקרא בשמו הפרטי כי אם בתואר הכבוד „רבי” כלומר „מורה הדורות”.

שמו של ר' יהודה יצא לתהילה לא רק בתפוצות ישראל אבל גם בכל העולם. רבי היה ידידו של הקיסר אנטונינוס, מושל המעצמה הגדולה, והקיסר תמיד הראה מידה של הכנעה בפני הנשיא. האגדה מספרת שאנטונינוס היה מבקר את רבי בביתו והיה עומד לפניו כתלמיד לפני רבו. יחסיו הטובים של ר' יהודה עם הקיסר אבטחו את השלום לאומה.

עיר מגוריו של רבי היתה אושה ואחר כך עבר לבית שערים בדרום מערב־הגליל התחתון. בה יסד את ישיבתו הגדולה ואליה עברה הסנהדרין. רק בשבע עשרה שנותיו האחרונות, כשנתרופפה בריאותו, הוא עבר לצפורי.

המעלות של רבי היו מרובות, ובגללן נתן לו הכנוי „רבנו הקדוש”. הגדולה שבמעלותיו היתה שליטתו בידיעת התורה בכל פניה. אהבתו לתורה היתה גדולה כל כך עד שהיה מקצר בתפילתו כדי שלא להיבטל מתלמוד תורה.

דרכו של ר' יהודה היתה דרך הקדושה והטהרה. הוא נזהר בכל דבר קטן כגדול. אחת ממידותיו התרומיות היתה הירתו אף מאבק לשון הרע.

אף על פי שרבי היה מדקדק בכבוד נשיאותו כחוט השערה, בתוך תוכו היה אדם רך ונוח. הוא היה זהיר ברגשותיו של כל יליד אשה, והיה מרחם לא רק על בני אדם אלא על כל בעל חי.

רבי הצטיין בחסידותו. בעשרו הרב היה משתמש לטובת אחרים ולמעשי צדקה. הוא היה מכלכל מוסדות שלמים ומפרנס תלמידי חכמים מרובים בבתי המדרש החשובים בארץ. כשבני תלמידי חכמים נטו מדרך הישרה, רבי השתדל להחזירם למוטב וללמדם תורה. על אף כל עשרו הוא לא היה מבקש הנאה בשום מותרות. הגמרא מביעה את זה במלים נהדרות: בשעת פטירתו של רבי, זקף עשר אצבעותיו כלפי מעלה ואמר: „רבונו של עולם. גלוי וידוע לפניך שיגעתי בעשר אצבעותי בתורה ולא נהניתי באצבע קטנה”.

גדולה היתה ענותנותו, שהתבלטה בכמה צורות. למרות גדולתו בתורה ובחכמה, נשיאותו הרמה, יחוסו המופלג ועשרו הרב, רבי היה מראה תמיד מידה של כבוד בפני כל תלמיד חכם. בבואו לעיר היה הולך להקביל את פני תלמידי החכמים שבה, אף על פי שלא היה צריך לנהג כך משום כבוד הנשיאות. תמיד היה משבח ר' יהודה מעשי אחרים יותר ממעשיו. כך הוא אומר, „כמה גדולים מעשי חייא”, וכאשר שאל אותו ר' שמעון בנו, „אפילו ממך?” אמר, „כן”. כמה פעמים רבי מודה לדברי חבריו במלים, „נראין דבריו מדברי”.

רבי אהב את השפה העברית וקנא לכבודה. הוא התנגד לשימוש בלשון סורית שהיתה הלשון המדוברת בין ההמון, ואמר, „בארץ ישראל לשון סורית למה? אלא או לשון הקדש, או לשון יונית”. ובביתו היה מדבר תמיד בלשון הקדש.

מבין אמרותיו המרובות, יכולים לראות את השקפתו המוסרית והדתית. הוא היה ירא שמים באמת, ועליו נאמר: „משמת רבי בטלה ענוה ויראת חטא”. רבי שאל, „איזו היא דרך שיבור לו האדם?” והשיב: „כל שהיא תפארת לעושיה ותפארת לו מן האדם”. המעשים שבן אדם עושה מביאים תהילה לה' וגם מביאים לאדם עצמו תהילה מפי אנשים אחרים.

לפי דעתו של רבי, איש יהודי חייב לקיים את כל המצוות, אפילו הקלות בעיניו, כי אין אדם יודע את השכר שה' נותן בעד כל מצוה. וכך היה אומר: „והוי זהיר במצוה קלה כבחמורה שאין אתה יודע מתן שכרן של מצוות”.

ר' יהודה ידע את טבע האדם והבין שהגורם העיקרי במעשי כל איש הוא ההרגל. רבי הורה את הדרך להשתמש בגורם זה ואומר, „מי שעושה מצוה אחת לשמה, אל ישמח על אותה מצוה בלבד, אלא על סופה שהיא גוררת מצוות הרבה, וחילוף הדברים, העובר עבירה אחת אל ידאג לאותה עבירה בלבד, אלא על סופה שהיא גוררת עבירות הרבה, לפי שמצוה גוררת מצוה, ועבירה גוררת עבירה”.

בזכות כל המעלות האלו, התגבר כח היהודים בארץ ישראל, ואף הקדוש ברוך הוא רחם בזכותו של רבי על עם ישראל כולו. האגדה מספרת: שלש עשרה שנה היה רבי סובל יסורים ובכל אותן השנים היתה זכותו מגינה על בני דורו, ולא הפילה אשה בארץ ישראל ולא נצטערה יולדת ולא היה העולם צריך לגשמים.

רב גדולתו של רבי באה ממעמדו בראש המפעל הגדול של עריכת המשנה. היתה לו מטרה משולשת בחבור המשנה: 1) ראשונה, השתדל לסכם את התורה שבעל פה שהתרחבה במשך הדורות, ולסדר אותה. כל סדרי המשניות השונים שקדמו לרבי גרמו ערבוב בהוראה, והחכמים אמרו שעתידה תורה שתשתכח מישראל כי לא יוכלו למצא הלכה ברורה ומשנה ברורה. רבי ראה את הסכנה והחליט לשפר את המצב. 2) המטרה השניה היתה לתת בידי הלומדים ספר מיוחד שישמש יסוד לכל דיוניהם ולמודיהם. 3) המטרה השלישית היתה לתת בידי חכמים מורה דרך שיעזור להם לפסק הלכה למעשה.

רבי ושותפיו בעבודה הכבירה של סידור המשנה, כללו בה סוגי ההלכות של תורה שבעל פה, אפילו הלכות שלא נהגו בהן לאחר החרבן, כגון: הלכות הנוגעות לעבודת המקדש והקרבנות, או עניני טומאה וטהרה. במשנה נכלל גם חלק אגדי המתאר את הדרך לחיי הרוח, ולפעמים יש בו רמזים לחיי העולם הבא.

רבי וחבריו הכריעו בין הדעות השונות בהלכות. דעת החכם שנחשבה לנכונה נקבעה במשנה לא בשם החכם, כי אם באופן סתמי, כלומר „הדעה עצמה מבלי להזכיר שם האומר”. אולם, בכדי שלא לצמצם את החקירה והדרישה ביסודי ההלכות, נקבעו במשנה גם הדעות, בהזכרת שם האומר, שהיו שונות מהדעה המקובלת. בזה נתנו המסדרים את האפשרות לבאים אחריהם לבחר בדעה האחרת, אם אחרי החקירה ימצאו כי היא הנכונה.

המשנה נחלקת לששה סדרים, שהם מקיפים את חיי האדם והאומה. כל סדר מחולק למסכתות. כל מסכת מחולקת לפרקים, וכל פרק למשנות. ששה הסדרים הם:

1) סדר זרעים־הנוגע לדיני עבודת האדמה.
2) סדר מועד־המכיל הלכות שבת ומועדים
3) סדר נשים־הדן בחוקים והלכות הנוגעים בחיי המשפחה.

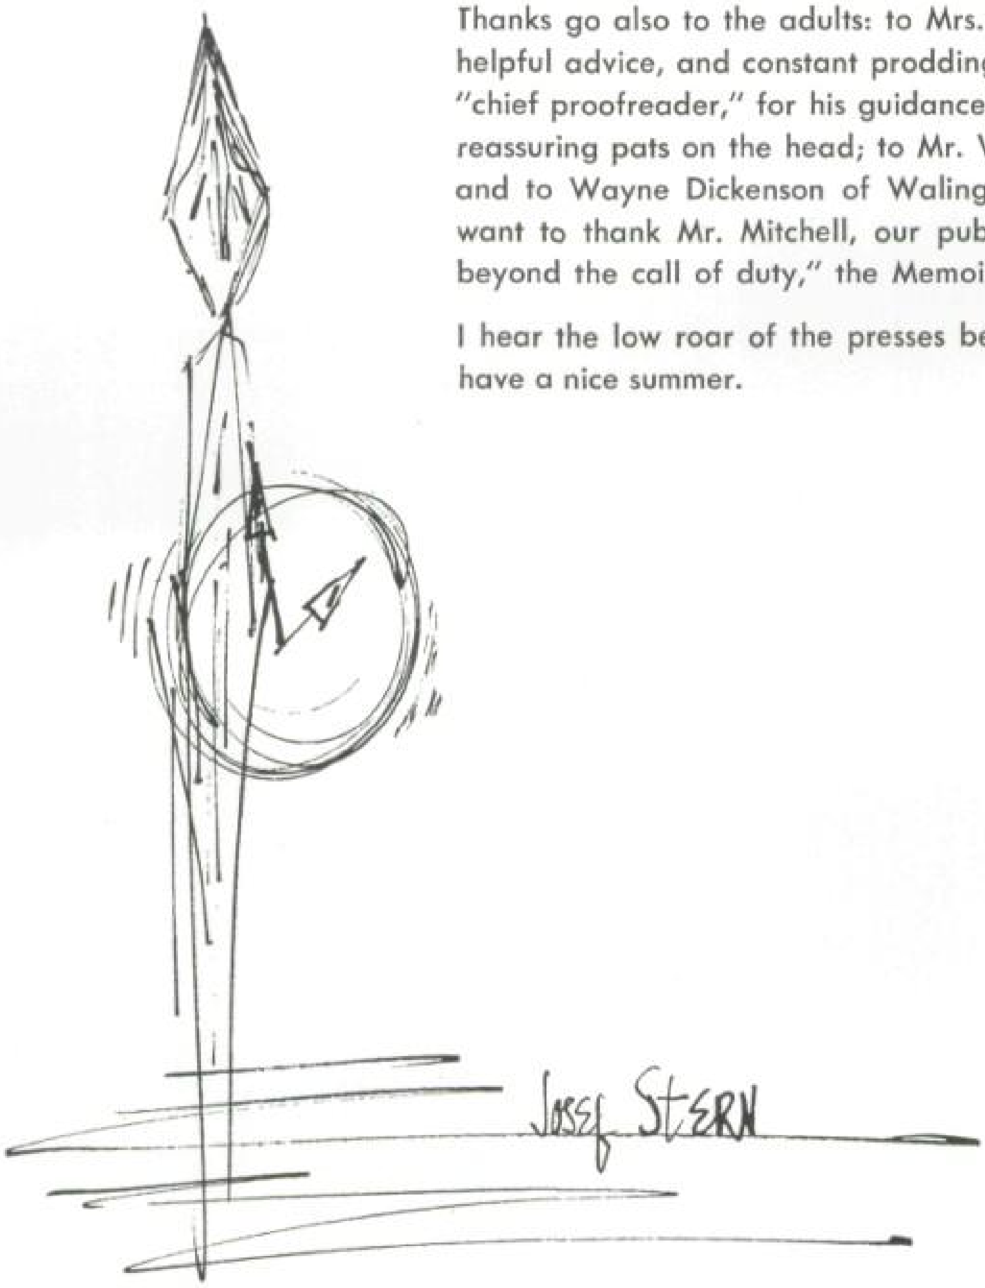
EDITOR'S MESSAGE

Because the Memoirs is the result of the efforts of many people, I'd like to personally extend my thanks to them in this Editor's Message.

I want to thank the editors, the staff, and, especially, the typists not only for their time and effort spent working on the annual, but also for putting up with my "tyranny" during the past year. We all have learned a great deal, not only about publishing a yearbook, but also about working with each other as a group. The rewards of this experience have more than justified our efforts. The lessons we have learned are many, but the foremost of them is undoubtedly not to elect Josef Stern editor-in-chief ever again!

Thanks go also to the adults: to Mrs. Stacy, our advisor, for her sound criticism, helpful advice, and constant prodding to "get the book out;" to Rabbi Rapoport, our "chief proofreader," for his guidance; to Mr. Rosenblatt for the excusals and reassuring pats on the head; to Mr. Wilson, Marc's father, for aid in photography; and to Wayne Dickenson of Walinger Studios for his valuable assistance. Finally, I want to thank Mr. Mitchell, our publisher, without whose services "above and beyond the call of duty," the Memoirs could not have been produced.

I hear the low roar of the presses beckoning in the distance, so thanks again, and have a nice summer.



Josef Stern
